THE AI CONFERENCE CX

23 & 24 September 2026

Van der Valk Airporthotel Düsseldorf

CALL FOR PAPERS

Join industry leaders, innovators, and changemakers at EvolutionCX – The AI Conference 2026, where the global customer experience community comes together to shape the future of service. As the demand for AI-driven customer engagement intensifies, this conference provides a unique platform to explore breakthrough technologies, pioneering applications, and real-world solutions transforming how businesses connect with their customers.

Over two dynamic days, participants will gain insights from world-class experts, engage in thought-provoking discussions, and connect with decision-makers across the customer service ecosystem – from technology providers and CX leaders to enterprises and policymakers. With a strong focus on innovation, collaboration, and actionable strategies, the event is designed to accelerate the adoption of AI while strengthening the competitiveness and human impact of customer experience.

Be part of the movement shaping customer experience.
